Dear Friend,

This week the House Appropriations Subcommittees have been busy reviewing federal spending for fiscal year 2010.

As a Member of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Military Construction and Veterans Affairs, I have a chance to help ensure we're providing support for all our veterans. I'm particularly proud of our accomplishments in the bill we reviewed this week regarding homeless veterans.

Sincerely,

Steve Israel

Member of Congress