Washington, D.C.— Today, Congressman Steve Israel (D-Huntington) released the following statement:

“Almost three months after Sandy hit, New Yorkers can finally rest assured that help is on its way. I'm delighted that the House finally passed the Sandy relief bill, but the real heroes are the New Yorkers rebuilding their lives, homes, and businesses.”